FEDERALS DRIVE REBELS HEADLONG BY ARTILLERY FIRE

MEXICO CITY, Mexico, May 24.—General Huerta, commanding the federal army at the battle around Reliano has sent dispatches to the government here announcing a complete victory for the federal forces. According to these dispatches the rebels under Orozco are in full retreat, pursued by the federal cavalry and the Rurales.

The battle started early in the morning, the federal horse advancing under cover of a heavy fire from the field artillery. In the crash that followed the rebel infantry gained a slight advantage, and even drove back the attackers and captured one of the rapid fire guns, which was enflaming their line. The fire of the federal guns proved too heavy, however, and after more than five hours of desperate fighting in which, according to the Huerta dispatches, the soldiers of Orozco lost more than six hundred killed, the rebel general drew off.

The fight soon became a rout. The federal cannon were rushed forward and kept pounding the broken fragments of Orozco's army. The rurales, which had a long standing grudge to satisfy were also sent forward and, when the dispatches were fled, were following the retreating army. More than 4000 men were engaged on each side.

REVOLT ONCE MORE THREATENS CUBA WITH INTERVENTION

WASHINGTON, May 24.—With the transport Prairie, bearing 750 marines, en her way South from Philadelphia and frantic messages from Americans in Cuba declaring that they are in peril from the threatened uprising of the blacks on the island, the state department here admits that it is anxious.

Dispatches from President Gomez, who is now in Havana, announcing that he has called for volunteers to quell the risings and hopes to have a sufficient force to hold the malcontents, has done little to relieve the strain here. Gomez is reported as having issued a statement denouncing the insurgents, and warning them not to tamper with American property or lives. In a dispatch to Washington the Cuban President asserts that he is "not anxious."

SEVEN SHOT DOWN IN GENERAL STRIKE IN AUSTRIAN CITY

BUDAPEST, Austria-Hungary, May 24.—Seven strikers have been shot down by the police and troops and at least one hundred and fifty persons of both sexes have been wounded, in the general strike which is now paralyzing this city.

The strike was called several days ago by the Socialist leaders, as a political protest and rapidly got out of hand, and has developed into a serious situation. The syndicalists are taking a leading part in the frequent riots which have taken place, and the need for the troops became so great that appeals were sent to Vienna. The local authorities, however, now say that they have the situation under control, and that traffic, which has been suspended, will be resumed tomorrow.
